Hollywood heavyweights at war

BRAD Pitt and George Clooney – the Hollywood hunks who were once palsy-walsy in “Ocean’s Eleven” and its sequels – are now mortal enemies!

The two Oscar winners are “at each other’s throats” over a big-bucks business deal that went Brad’s way, sources revealed exclusively to The National ENQUIRER.

The bad blood boiled over when Brad’s company, Plan B, beat out George’s production arm for a highly coveted film project.

To George’s disgust, Brad won the film rights to a book about an American lawyer’s obsessive crusade against Big Oil on behalf of the poor farmers in the Amazon rainforest.

The book, “Law of the Jungle,” chronicles the true-life story behind the 22-years-and-counting legal battle over pollution in the Ecuadorian jungle.

The lawyer eventually won an $18 billion judgment against corporate colossus Chevron.

“George desperately wanted the project. Brad knew it, but he scooped it up anyway. He told George, ‘It’s just business, man,’” a source said.

“But George can’t forgive him. He thinks Brad’s a big phony now – praising him to the press and then stabbing him in the back!”

Just last year, Brad, 51, gushed over the 54-year-old silver fox, declaring: “Well, you know, George is one of our best representatives.

He’s a joy to be around.”

But, according to the insider: “Brad no longer feels that way about George. He can’t stand the sight of him anymore. He told him to his face, ‘I hate you!’”

Even the guys’ beautiful brides – Angelina and Amal – reportedly hate each other now.

Said the source: “Angie thinks Amal is ‘putting on airs,’ and Amal thinks Angie is a pretender.” NE

AFFLECK & GARNER SET FOR $150M DIVORCE

When school's

Ben will be gone
for good: source

THE storm clouds over Ben Affleck and Jennifer Garner's marriage have erupted into a secret separation, The National ENQUIRER has exclusively learned.

The troubled parents of three children will officially announce their split within weeks, according to a source – setting the stage for a $150 million divorce!

“Ben and Jen are through!” said the Hollywood informant.

“He’s told Jen that he wants the official statement to come out before their 10-year wedding anniversary on June 29.”

The pair was last seen together walking their daughters to school in Brentwood,

The ENQUIRER exclusively reported how Ben, 42, stormed out on Jen and fled to a Buddhist monastery in Canada to “get his head straight.”

DURING HIS STAY on a remote island, the Oscar winner was caught on video without his wedding ring!

Stunned by yet another betrayal from her husband, Jen has temporarily moved to Montreal, where she is filming the comedy, “Nine Lives.”

Ben remained at home with their children – Violet, 9,

STILL PINING FOR J.

AS IF to rub salt into his wife's wounds, Ben was recently spotted at a Starbucks near their home – where he put a $100 bill into a tip jar bearing the name of his ex-fiancé, Jennifer Lopez!

“Ben has been left with daddy duty, which he hates, until school is out for the summer,” revealed a source. “Then, all three kids will travel to Montreal to be with Jen – and Ben will be gone for good!”

THE ENQUIRER learned that Ben has ignored Jen’s orders and continued to gamble – a vice that, along with alcohol, sent him to rehab in 2001.

On May 3, the “Gone Girl” star was photographed in Las Vegas where he “played high-stakes poker for several hours,” according to a source.

Ben was again spotted playing poker in Las Vegas on May 14 at 3 a.m.

Meanwhile, “Alias” actress Jen, 43, was seen only hours before on the east coast.

“He must have left the kids with a nanny!” said the source.

Disclosed another source: “Jen has actually been preparing herself emotionally for this divorce for some time.

“She sees a therapist to learn how to cope with the divorce, and how to deal with the kids after they split. She’ll take custody of them.” NE customer who was at the coffee shop on May 20 told The National ENQUIRER.

“The Starbucks location had two tipping jars – one with ‘J.Lo’ on it, and the other with ‘Mariah Carey.’ After ordering a drink, Ben put $100 into the ‘J.Lo’ jar. He’s obviously still into ‘Bennifer!’” All’s swell in Jennifer’s world!

WITH a heavily pregnant Jennifer Love Hewitt’s acting career currently on hold, the “Ghost Whisperer” star is keeping busy posing for Palmer’s Cocoa Butter Formula!

The actress, 36, who last starred in CBS’ “Criminal Minds,” wore a simple, white crop top with a matching maxi skirt for the May 20 photo shoot, and looked positively radiant. In a recent interview, the mom of one said: “After the success I had using Palmer’s through my first pregnancy, I knew I wanted to support the brand by baring my pregnant belly to celebrate the beauty of expectant mothers.”

BOBBY & GIADA'S ROMANCE REACHES BOILING POINT!

CELEBRITY chefs Bobby Flay and Giada De Laurentiis are now officially a power couple, after The National ENQUIRER caught the randy restaurateurs dishing some hot gossip of their very own!

"They were holding hands under their table and looked very cozy," said the spy who caught Bobby with Giada at the Manhattan celebrity haunt Emilio's Ballato.

"They even carved their initials in a secret place on the wall!"

But the steamiest revelation from the couple's night out was 44-year-old Giada's secret about her July split from hubby Todd Thompson – after 11 years of marriage to the fashion designer.

It has been only two months since Bobby, 50, split from "Law & Order: SVU" beauty Stephanie March.

He recently announced the impending divorce from his 40-year-old third wife shortly after their 10th anniversary.

One of Giada's close pals revealed the two had "been spending a lot of time together."

The friend added: "Even when work keeps them apart, they're phoning and texting each other!"

The eatery's staff also confirmed the new couple's romantic visit.

One employee said: "They had a great time together, ate pasta and fish – and tipped well!"

Whistleblower Richard Lasko, inset, and Bruce Jenner's hunky lover, main picture

Kris and Bruce divorced last December, after more than 20 years of marriage

THE Bruce Jenner sex swap scandal has exploded with a bombshell new revelation that exposes his deepest and darkest secret yet!

A man has confessed to a secret homosexual affair with the former Olympic hero – a blockbuster disclosure that confirms Bruce, 65, carried on a twisted double life of lies, gay sex and cross-dressing for more than three decades before he came out as a woman.

In a world exclusive tell-all, TV producer and journalist Richard Lasko is stepping out of the shadows to reveal how a close friend once admitted to carrying on a steamy affair with Bruce after his gold medal-winning performance in the decathlon at the 1976 Montreal Games.

RICHARD CLAIMED when he revealed to the man that his list of famous conquests included "Queen" rocker Freddie Mercury and ballet legend Rudolf Nureyev, the man sensationally responded: "You're not the only one, you know.

I slept with Bruce Jenner!"

While The National ENQUIRER is withholding the lover's name, Richard, 55, said: "When I was over at his house, he showed me two or three photos of himself with Bruce.

"They were both shirtless and wearing swim trunks, posing for the camera, standing up. The pictures appeared to be taken on a beach. There were palm trees in the background."

Bruce's lothario - then a tall, sandy-haired, muscular twentysomething about 10 years Bruce's junior - also dished intimate details of his romance with Bruce, including how the pair met in L.A., and their encounter flared into a full-fledged romance.

In between throes of passion, the clandestine lovers also worked out together, according to a source.

The ENQUIRER has learned the trysts occurred after Bruce's second wife, beauty queen Linda Thompson, the ex-girlfriend of Elvis Presley, dumped him in 1986.

At the time, Linda complained: "We have a great relationship, not a marriage."

Recalled Richard: "He told me he'd met Bruce in L.A.

"I got the distinct im- ► pression from the way he'd kept the photos that they had a real relationship – that it wasn't a one-night stand.

"Though Bruce is so much older than him, they both looked very handsome. They were both tall, with outdoorsy faces.

"I had developed a crush on him myself. He was gorgeous! He had a really toned body and the most beautiful legs of any man I'd ever seen. He had beautiful calves and nice thighs, and wore very short shorts.

Richard is a onetime luminary of New York's notorious Studio 54 club, where he and his brother, Robert, were christened "The DuPont Twins" by Andy Warhol. The pop artist pretended they were heirs to the chemical fortune. Richard plans to reveal the truth about Bruce in a forthcoming memoir he is writing.

He now becomes the second person to come forward to The ENQUIRER with details about Bruce's relationship with the boy toy.

In an ironic twist, Richard met Bruce at least twice.

One meeting was at the premiere for the 1980 film Bruce starred in with the Village People, "Can't Stop the Music."

Richard recalled: "The movie's producer, Allan Carr, was a friend of mine and flew me to L.A. for the opening."

THE ENQUIRER approached the man – who is now weathered-looking in his 50s – at his home. He responded: "Not interested! I don't want to talk."

He later denied to The ENQUIRER that he had any past sexual relationship with Bruce.

For his part, Bruce has dodged questions about his gay romps with the old lover, with a rep steadfastly refusing to respond to The ENQUIRER.

Said a source: "After decades of living a lie, the true Bruce is finally emerging.

"As for whether he takes on any more male lovers, only time will tell!"

Kardashians" episode on May 18.

With her mascara smeared, the teary momager told Bruce: "I'm the one you lied to the longest."

Kris also said she was the last person to whom Bruce told "the truth" – but it remains to be seen if the "truth" included admissions about his same-sex past!

THAT WOULD appear unlikely: In his confessional interview with Diane Sawyer, the gender-bending patriarch of the Kardashian-Jenner clan boastfully declared: "No, I'm not gay!"

Bruce charged: "I am, as far as I know, heterosexual. I've never been with a guy!"

THE SIZZLING account of how Bruce concocted his homosexual cover-up blows the lid off his carefully crafted image as an Olympic athlete-turned-reality television family man.

It also exposes the lies and deceit that the dad of six [and stepfather of Kim, Kourtney, Khloé and Robert Kardashian] likely perpetuated on the three women he married – Chrys-

RYAN SO BACK

IN THE LATEST scandal to rock Hollywood's most dysfunctional family, Ryan O'Neal has told his son with the late Farrah Fawcett: "You're going to kill yourself!"

But notorious druggie Redmond O'Neal can't kick his addiction and is still on a downward spiral!

"Ryan has told his wayward son that he's better off in jail – because that may be the only thing right now that's going to save his life," a family insider told The National ENQUIRER.

Concerned pals have reported 30-year-old Redmond – who's been in and out of rehab over a heroin addiction

Sadly, the family only learned of Redmond's tragic drug relapse after a warrant was issued in April for his parole violations.

"No doubt this has Farrah spinning in her grave, and his dad, Ryan, has gone ballistic," said the friend.

The ENQUIRER has also seen a private website post that Redmond's distraught half-brother Griffin wrote on May 20.

From left, Redmond's mugshot; a recent photo of him in the hospital that was posted to his Facebook; fed-up dad Ryan smoking what appears to be a hand-rolled cigarette, Griffin, 50, wrote: "This breaks my heart ... Smoking PCP in public like it ain't no thang ... I pray for you brother."

Said the source: "Griffin's worried that Redmond has a death wish, and that tough love and jail may be the only thing to save him."

The troubling setback is especially hurtful to Ryan after Redmond proclaimed himself drug-free in 2013 — partly crediting his shameful stint in jail while his mother was dying of cancer in 2009.

"If Redmond doesn't get help soon, he may not live to see the six-year anniversary of his mother's death on June 25!" the source told The ENQUIRER.

'Basket case' Marie!

Distraught Osmond STILL REELING from suicide death of her son

MARIE Osmond suffered an emotional collapse in the wake of the fifth anniversary of her tragic son's suicide death, The National ENQUIRER has learned.

The beloved entertainer's son Michael Blosil, who had been battling depression, killed himself by leaping off his apartment building in downtown Los Angeles on Feb. 26, 2010. He was just 18.

In a recent message on her Instagram page, Marie wrote: "So to wrap up this very special day of May 4th, I'd like to end with a very Happy Birthday to my precious son Michael. I love and miss you!!!! Mom."

Michael was one of Marie's eight children

Marie, 55, also posted a poem that read in part: "I think of you in silence, I often speak your name. / All I have are memories and your picture in a frame. / Your memory is my keepsake, with which I'll never part. / God has you in his keeping, I have you in my heart!!!"

A close friend told The ENQUIRER: "After posting this poem, Marie collapsed on the bed in tears.

"She's never gotten over Michael's death, and now seems to miss him more than ever. She's turned into a basket case!"

During every performance of her Las Vegas stage show, Marie sings "Pie Jesu," the Requiem mass composed by Andrew Lloyd Webber, in Michael's memory.

Said the source: "Marie's been in terrible spirits since Michael's birthday and Mother's Day. She's suffered an emotional collapse. Everyone's worried about her."

The ENQUIRER has reported Marie once suffered such severe postpartum depression she drove away from her other children, vowing never to return. She also endured a divorce from Brian Blosil.

Said the source: "Marie is happy in her re-marriage to her first husband, Stephen Craig. But she still can't get over Michael's suicide, and constantly blames herself for his untimely death.

"She always wonders whether she missed any warning signs or cries of help from him." NE

D.C. MURDER NUT
NAILED BY*PIZZA
CRUST!*Quadruple murder suspect
Darron Dellon Wint*DNA ON HALF-EATEN SLICE MATCHES SUSPECTED KILLER

THE spectacular bust of a vicious ex-con suspected in the sadistic slaughter of a Washington, D.C., family could have been ripped from a “CSI” script!

The arrest of Darron Dellon Wint, 34, came with the aid of 21st century tactics that included DNA from a half-eaten piece of pizza, surveillance footage and cell phone records.

Cops corralled Wint a week after the grisly crime, huddled in a car in Maryland with two women and at least $10,000 in cash. Now police are using similar strategies to stay hot on the trail of other accomplices they believe helped Wint!

Before his capture, D.C. Police Chief Cathy Lanier said “just about every officer across the country” was working on the case.

But the wheels to take down Wint were already spinning. Police were convinced the career criminal was the person responsible for the May 13 break-in and arson of the $5 million home of Savvas Savopoulos, 46, CEO of American Iron Works.

The burned and battered bodies of Savvas, his wife, Amy, 47, their 10-year-old son, Philip, along with their housekeeper, Veralicia Figueroa, 57, were found in the home the next day.

Forensic evidence revealed Wint had held them hostage for 10-plus hours, and tortured them into having Savvas’ personal assistant deliver $40,000 in cash to the home.

Shortly after gaining entry to the mansion, Wint ordered a pizza – which led to his capture. Cops stumbled on the pizza crust and scanned it for DNA – matching it to Wint, a former American Iron Works employee.

Next, a Domino’s pizza confirmed the delivery on the night of the murders!

Police also spotted Wint in surveillance footage from a nearby lot where he dumped and burned Savvas’ Porsche.

Police then tracked down Wint’s girlfriend in Brooklyn, N.Y., by calling her cell phone. It’s believed she tipped off cops to his location in College Park, where he was surrounded by cops on May 21. He was arrested, along with the two women, and three other men, and charged with first-degree felony murder while armed.

NIGHTMARES!

SAFE at home? Some of the most horrific crimes in American history have occurred during home invasions. Here are three terrifying reasons to lock your doors.

■ CHESHIRE, CONN., 2007

Two ex-cons beat Dr. William Petit with a baseball bat, raped and strangled his wife Jennifer and sexually assaulted their daughter Michaela, 11. Dr. Petit escaped, but the thugs torched the house, killing Jennifer, Michaela and daughter Hayley, 17. Steven Hayes and Joshua Komisarjevsky were both sentenced to death for the crime.

■ HOLLYWOOD, 1969

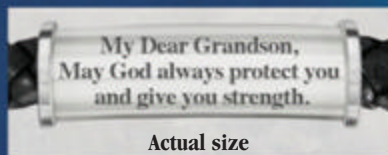

The book “Helter Skelter” told the grisly tale of crazed cult leader Charles Manson, who ordered his “Family” to brutally hack to death pregnant actress Sharon Tate and four friends, then used their blood to scrawl the word “PIGS” on a wall. Manson remains in prison.

■ HOLCOMB, KAN., 1959

Two drifters looking for cash and finding none murdered Herbert and Bonnie Clutter and two of their children. Inept killers Richard Hickock and Perry Smith inspired Truman Capote to write the chilling “In Cold Blood.” They were eventually hanged.

DRUNKEN DEPP IN DEEP TROUBLE!

Wife AMBER GOES NUTS after 'sober' Johnny and Keith Richards' wild bender

A BOOZY binge with Rolling Stoner Keith Richards has badly shaken Johnny Depp's already rocky marriage.

The star's new bride, Amber Heard, hit the roof when she learned the two guys got tossed from a tony L.A. eatery for being drunk and disorderly, sources said!

To make matters worse, Johnny brought the guitar god home to keep the party going!

"Amber was furious," said a friend close to the couple.

"She didn't want to make a scene in front of Keith so she let it go ... until morning. Then she unloaded on Johnny!"

The embarrassing incident at Hollywood's conservative Musso and Frank Grill comes just six months after Johnny, 51, tried to kick the sauce with an "at-home" rehab program, as The ENQUIRER exclusively reported.

The "Pirates of the Caribbean" star dropped out of sight after an incoherent speech at November's Hollywood Film Awards, which nearly derailed his

"Johnny is supposed to be sober," added a source. "They've only been married since February, but Amber's already had it with the drama."

The leggy 29-year-old beauty had kept a close eye on Johnny since his rehab announcement, but pals said she was blindsided when he got soused with Keith.

Keith, 71, has famously battled his own heroin and alcohol addictions. But he's long been a hero to Johnny, who admittedly modeled his "Pirates" character, Captain Jack Sparrow, on Keith.

During their juiced-up night out, "they were causing a scene," said another witness.

"At one point Keith playfully pushed Johnny, and Johnny bumped into a guy, spilling a drink all over his expensive suit."

That's when rock and Hollywood royalty got the bum's rush out the door and headed to Johnny's place.

"Now Johnny's got a lot of making up to do with Amber," added the source.

PARIS' GOAL: TO WED SOCCER STAR LOVER!

But Jacksons aren't so sure about her conversion to Jewish faith

THE daughter of Michael Jackson is planning a wedding as she rebounds from depression with a new love – and a new religion!

“Her late father, the King of Pop, will be there in spirit,” a close source told The National ENQUIRER.

“But in Michael’s place, her uncle – Jermaine Jackson – will walk her down the aisle.”

Paris Jackson, 17, first got together with 18-year-old Chester Castellow, a rising soccer star whose accomplishments include competing at the Maccabiah Games in Israel in 2013, when she returned to the Jackson estate in Calabasas, Calif., after a long stint in a Utah boarding school. Now she’s hoping to get hitched as soon as she turns 18!

“Paris has decided to tie the knot because she’s worried about the health of her grandmother, Katherine,” said the insider. “She wants to be sure Katherine is at the wedding. Paris can wed after she turns 18, which is next April 3, or she can do it sooner with the family’s legal permission.”

The teen couple was photographed on May 16 while coming out of a L.A. coffee shop, with Paris flashing an engagement ring on her engagement finger!

But there’s still one big hitch to Paris getting hitched – with the eager bride-to-be talking about converting to her beau’s Jewish faith!

That’s causing some new tension within the Jackson clan, since Paris’ grandmother is a devout Jehovah’s Witness.

“Katherine and the other members of the Jackson family certainly don’t want to pressure Paris into giving Chester up,” said another close friend of the family.

The insider added the Jacksons are determined not to upset Paris, who survived a terrifying suicide attempt in 2013.

Said the source: “The family believes that Paris is still in a very vulnerable state, so they have to tread lightly!” NE

COUGAR COURTENEY URGED TO WED IN HER HOMETOWN!

Cox's mom too frail to travel, says family

SHE'S planning a romantic wedding in Ireland, but the family of "Cougar Town" star Courteney Cox is pleading for her to get hitched in her Alabama hometown – for the sake of her ailing mother!

Courteney Pritchard is too frail to travel for her daughter's wedding, a family member revealed in an exclusive interview with The National ENQUIRER.

"It would be great if Courteney got married here in Birmingham," said Courteney's uncle James Cox from his home in Mountain Brook, Ala.

"Her mother is in a wheelchair or in her bed most of the time. It would be a strain on her to go anywhere else!"

Courteney has been planning to marry rocker Johnny McDaid this summer in his native Ireland – with a separate wedding celebration to be held in Los Angeles.

But the uncle of the "Friends" vet, 50, said Courteney's mother has only gotten worse since being placed in an Alabama adult care facility 18 months ago.

James, 88, noted that Courteney and her older sisters, Virginia and Dottie, have made sure their mother is getting the best treatment possible.

"But Courteney's mom is in bad shape. She isn't too old – only 79 or 80 – but she's been worsening for about eight or nine years," James told The ENQUIRER.

Despite the location, James is still looking forward to attending with his wife, Ann. He also gave his seal of approval to Johnny, and is excited the musician, 38, will be around to help divorced Courteney raise her daughter, Coco.

"Usually it's good for young children to have a father and a mother," James told The ENQUIRER. "I hope they will both be very happy together. I have no idea who'll walk her down the aisle, though. Maybe I will!"

James also revealed that he supports Courteney's reported interest in giving Coco a sibling!

"It would be great for Coco to have a brother or sister," he mused.

"Of course, it would be good for Courteney if she adopted.

"I guess she's a little too old to have another child – but she's a fine lady, and we hope for happiness for her and her career and her daughter." NE

EVIL COSBY'S SI

BILL Cosby has stubbornly refused to address charges that he sexually assaulted dozens of women, but he's mouthed off about rape – on tape!

In a remarkable twist to the scandal that has derailed the 77-year-old's career, The National ENQUIRER can exclusively reveal how Cosby once described the brutal sex crime as merely “annoying,” but then declared rape “drives a person to suicide.”

The ENQUIRER has obtained the blockbuster recording of Cosby's ramblings, and according to a law enforcement source, his statements could trigger an official police investigation!

“Bill Cosby could end up eating his words!” the source said.

“He's been dodging questions in interviews, most recently on ‘Good Morning America.’ But here he's giving his most personal thoughts about rape, and he comes off as a hypocrite!

“There's no question cops will want to dig into these recordings. They contain possible evidence and incriminating statements.”

Cosby made the comments during an interview on April 5, 2011, for a proposed documentary about bullying, titled, “Bullies and Friends,” according to the film's award-winning director/producer.

ma, sexual abuse, molestation.”

Cosby went on to say: “I don't even want to berate animals, because animals are not taught ... better.”

Cosby also discussed the rape of an 11-year-old Texas girl by a gang of men. “There is no freedom here, unless in a courtroom ... I mean she can give permissions [laughs], but one's only excuse would be: ‘I didn't know it was against the law,’ which is not gonna go that far,” he said.

Cosby added: “This rape thing is annoying. It is sickening ... the act which drives a

Bill has DEEP anger issues, declares top shrink

THE ENQUIRER commissioned nationally renowned psychotherapist Dr. Gilda Carle to analyze Bill Cosby's comments. She drew these expert conclusions:

■ “For him to be interviewed about bullying and then suddenly veer off into the area of rape is totally astonishing. There are kernels in his comments that point to something much deeper.”

■ “What strikes me most here is his use of the word ‘annoying’ to describe rape! That in itself is highly inappropriate. When I think of something that's annoying, it would be something like a bug bite – not rape!”

■ “He's slipping up in some way here. This could be the key to the allegations made by scores of women to having allegedly been raped, attacked and drugged at his hands. I see anger beneath his words here. Did something happen to a person close to him, and this became the possible motivation for him to inflict pain on other women?”

“The incident in Compton [Calif.] where these boys raped this girl, that to me is a form of bullying ... an act of violent, physical trauma, sexual abuse, molestation ... I don't even want to berate animals, because animals are not taught ... better.”

“But the rape thing. This rape thing is annoying. It is sickening...the act which drives a person to suicide.”

“Because I remember, a young lady that ... I knew, who was raped. And she came home and reported it, and her father, blamed her for it, and would hear nothing, of going, after the boy.”

person to suicide.”

He also claimed to know “a young lady ... who was raped.”

The Emmy-winning star and father of five was once revered as the quintessential TV dad, Dr. Cliff Huxtable on “The Cosby Show.”

But since last November, at least 40 women have accused Cosby of attacking, and in many cases, drugging them.

The alleged assaults spanned 43 years – from 1965, a year after Cosby married wife Camille, to as recently as 2008. Cosby’s lawyers have repeatedly denied the allegations.

Added filmmaker Cassidy: “I’m bringing my interview forward ... I feel that I have an ethical obligation to do so.”

Battle to land the TV tell-all

DIANE Sawyer and Oprah Winfrey are in a desperate smackdown to snag a coveted exclusive interview with the disgraced comic.

The sicko has been deluged with offers to tell his side of the story, and the battling divas have broken out as the lead contenders.

“Bill’s desperate to tell his story,” said an insider, but pals are urging him to stay silent. “They’re terrified he’ll blow his legacy in one bad interview,” said a pal. “But the money’s getting too good to resist!”

Oprah and Diane have upped the ante – and the smart money’s on Diane.

“Bill thinks NBC burned him when the scandal broke last fall, so he wants to get even with them by going with rival ABC – and Diane!”

The big question is whether Cosby will come clean on TV, but the source added: “There’s no way Diane or Oprah will let him off the hook.” NE

NO-NOSE BABY'S FIGHTING SPIRIT!

Disfigured boy's thriving against terrible odds

TO NEW parents, every baby is special. But to an Alabama couple, their son is truly unique – after he was born without a nose!

When doctors handed Brandi McGlathery her newborn on March 4 in Mobile, “I pulled back and said, ‘Something’s wrong! He doesn’t have a nose!’”

Eli was born with a rare facial anomaly known as complete congenital arhinia. He may have no nasal passages or sinus cavities.

His condition, which is so rare there are only about 41 known cases worldwide, was even more baffling since all of Brandi’s ultrasounds and tests were normal. Eli even has a nasal bone.

Doctors performed a tracheostomy on the baby when he was just 5 days old to make it easier for him to breathe and eat. Brandi, 23, uses a suction tube to keep the opening clear, while Eli’s dad, Troy Thompson, dons sterile gloves and uses Q-Tips to clean it several times a day. Since undergoing the procedure, Eli – born at an otherwise healthy six pounds, eight ounces – can no longer make noise when he cries.

But as Brandi told

The National ENQUIRER: “He’s been doing wonderfully. He’s a much happier baby.”

Eli’s parents are consulting with specialists, but he faces numerous surgeries.

“The rest of him is so cute, sometimes you don’t even realize he doesn’t have a nose,” Brandi said.

“Troy says all the time, ‘I think it gives him character.’”

“We think he’s perfect as is. When it’s your baby, it doesn’t matter what’s wrong. You love him regardless.”

But that doesn’t mean she doesn’t foresee struggles.

“I don’t know how I’ll handle it the day he comes home and says, ‘Mom! Someone made fun of my nose!’”

In the meantime, added Brandi: “We’re going to do our best to make him happy.

“He’s like any other baby. He just doesn’t have a nose.”

Readers can contribute to baby Eli’s medical fund at gofundme.com, where more than $55,000 has been raised already! NE

BITTER BABS OUT TO DESTROY HILLARY!

BARBRA Streisand will use her upcoming autobiography to blow up archenemy Hillary Clinton's White House campaign, The National ENQUIRER has exclusively learned.

The $25 million tell-all is due to be published in 2017, but sources said the devious diva will leak a sensational account of her long-rumored affair with former President Bill Clinton just ahead of the 2016 election!

"Barbra is out to torpedo Hillary's campaign!" a source told The ENQUIRER.

"She doesn't get angry, she gets even. Babs never forgot, nor did she forgive Hillary for banning her from the Clinton White House.

"She believes that once she reveals the details of her re-

"Barbra will discuss reports of the alleged sex romp in her book and whatever she says is sure to make headlines!" dished the source.

In addition to hurting Hillary, sources said the book would also blow up 73-year-old Barbra's marriage to James Brolin - which would mean a $400 million divorce!

Said an insider: "The marriage is hanging by a thread as it is. James has begged her not to go into embarrassing detail about her Hollywood lovers, but that's exactly what Barbra plans to do!"

The ENQUIRER has learned the "Funny Girl" star will admit to romances with a Who's Who of Hollywood, including Elvis Presley, Ryan O'Neal, Kris Kristofferson, Jon Voight, Richard Gere and Warren Beatty - as well as tennis ace Andre Agassi and TV newsman Peter Jennings!

Barbra will also get back at "Miami Vice" star Don Johnson, who pursued her in 1988 despite being seven years her junior.

Added the source: "It's been rumored Barbra was more emotionally invested in the relationship, and she was stunned when Don proposed to his ex-wife, Melanie Griffith.

FEUD THAT REFUSES TO DIE!

DAVE got the cheers – but Jay delivered the knockout punch!

While America lauded David Letterman on a career-capping episode of the “Late Show,” it was really his longtime nemesis, Jay Leno, who produced the comedic death blow by bitterly spurning Dave’s invitation to make a cameo during the final show.

“Jay never gave the invitation the slightest consideration,” an insider told The National ENQUIRER.

“There was no way Jay was going on that show when Dave refused to go on his last episode. And then there’s that slight matter of decades worth of bad blood!”

What’s more, Jay, 65, callously fibbed his way out of accepting Dave’s olive branch by telling producers his “touring schedule would not allow him to make an appearance,” according to an insider.

The ENQUIRER, though, has caught Jay – who still tours as a stand-up comedian – in that boldfaced lie: We’ve discovered he had not one appearance scheduled until three days after Dave’s last show on May 23 in Los Angeles!

“We invited Jay and all I heard was that he was in ‘Chuckles’ in Boulder, Colorado, for three weeks,” said “Late Show” executive producer Rob Burnett. “It must be a long gig!”

Not only is there no “Chuckles” comedy club in Boulder – but the nearest one is in Corpus Christi, Texas!

Dave, 68, helped boost Jay’s popularity by repeatedly inviting him to appear on his old NBC perch, “Late Night with David Letterman.”

But after Jay landed “The Tonight Show” gig, Dave never forgave him and scathingly mocked him for the betrayal.

Meanwhile, Jay rarely took digs at his late-night rival.

Yet back in January, Jay seemed to fib when asked about the invitation to appear on Dave’s final episode, saying: “I haven’t heard that.”

Leno snubs Letterman’s invite to appear on his final show

WHOOPI FREAKS OUT!

I’m next, she says, after deaths of pals & kin

HER brother’s sudden death has Whoopi Goldberg convinced she’s in her own final days – and ready to leave “The View!”

“Clyde’s passing was just the latest in a string of untimely deaths among Whoopi’s family and circle of friends,” an insider told The National ENQUIRER.

Whoopi ditched hosting “The View” on May 12 to be with her brother Clyde Johnson after he suffered a brain aneurysm. She has since returned to the show.

As The ENQUIRER has reported, Whoopi abused her body with drugs during her youth.

Now the comedian, 59, is afraid her own wild years are about to catch up to her! “It’s especially hard when these things come in bunches,” added the source.

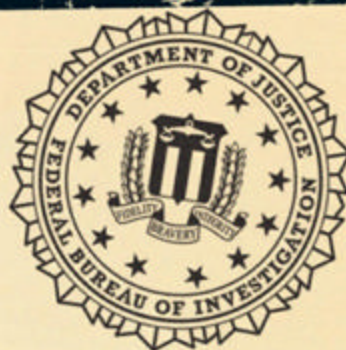

Whoopi’s close friend, Robin Williams, took his own life last August, and then director Mike Nichols – who made Whoopi a Broadway star in 1984 – passed away in November.

“It’s been one loss after another for Whoopi,” said the insider – and with only a year left on her contract with “The View,” Whoopi may leave the show to focus on fulfilling her bucket list. NE

ELVIS & PRISCILLA'S BLACKMAIL SEX SPY PHOTOS!

A BLACKMAIL plot targeted Priscilla Presley when she was still a lovestruck 14-year-old dating Elvis, according to The King's 683-page FBI file.

At the time, Elvis was stationed with the U.S. Army in Germany, as was Priscilla's Air Force officer father.

An internal FBI memo, dated Dec. 30, 1959, said a bogus bisexual skin doctor threatened to publish photos of the hip-shaking singer in "compromising situations" with an underage Priscilla.

The doctor had a penchant for making sexual advances toward other soldiers, and turned against Elvis when he stopped seeing him,

'threatened to expose Presley by photographs and tape recordings which are alleged to present Presley in compromising situations'

the documents show.

The FBI also uncovered a plot to assassinate Elvis by a Red Army soldier stationed in East Germany, according to a March 11, 1959, entry.

And despite his rebel reputation, Elvis volunteered to be an informant for the FBI, according to an internal memo dated Jan. 4, 1971. The files do not reveal whether the "Love Me Tender" singer ever snitched.

The dossier also revealed Elvis' secret hatred for The Beatles. He felt the group "laid the groundwork for many of the problems we are having with young people by their filthy unkempt appearances and suggestive music."

ANNA NICOLE'S MURDER-FOR-HIRE PLOT!

THE FBI investigated Playboy Playmate Anna Nicole Smith in an alleged murder-for-hire plot to kill her tycoon husband's stepson E. Pierce Marshall, her heavily redacted 100-plus-page file shows.

Oil mogul J. Howard Marshall, 89, raised eyebrows when he met 26-year-old Anna Nicole dancing at a Texas strip joint, and then married her in 1994.

Following his 1995 death of natural causes, Anna Nicole became embroiled in a bitter court battle with Marshall's son over her late husband's $550 million estate.

The documents don't reveal what triggered the murder plot probe, but during a July 2000 interview with investigators the busty blonde "began crying and denied ever making such plans," the agent wrote.

During the investigation a .357-caliber revolver was confiscated from Anna Nicole's home, the files show.

In an April 26, 2001, letter to the FBI, assistant U.S. attorney Sally Meloch said, "There is insufficient evidence to establish that there was a murder-for-hire plot by Ms. Smith."

The former stripper died Feb. 8, 2007, of a drug overdose at the age of 39.

'it has been alleged that Anna Nicole Smith attempted to hire someone to kill Marshall'

WHAT BURT REYNOLDS DIDN'T KNOW ABOUT DINAH SHORE

DINAH and the “Smokey and the Bandit” star raised eyebrows in the 1970s when they launched a steamy romance even though Burt was 19 years her junior.

Years earlier the FBI kept tabs on Dinah due to her association with several Chicago mobsters. According to her FBI file, the feds received information in 1961 that “a well-known attorney of racketeers” handled her contract.

That same year, she reportedly associated with the wife of a “Chicago hoodlum,” and the FBI suggested a Chicago “underworld leader” had an “interest of percentage” in her career earnings. No action was taken on the claims.

The names in her file are redacted, but Dinah was close to powerful Chicago attorney Sidney Korshak, who was known as a shadowy advisor to Hollywood stars and organized crime figures.

‘Dinah Shore was associated with the wife of a Chicago hoodlum and racketeer’

FILE #4

WHITNEY HOUSTON GAY EXTORTION PLOT!

AN extortion plot threatened to reveal doomed diva Whitney Houston’s lesbian relationship with an unidentified woman, according to the late singer’s 128-page file.

The FBI began to investigate after Whitney received a letter from a lawyer representing an unidentified woman who threatened to “reveal certain details” about Whitney’s “romantic relationships” unless she paid $100,000. The blackmailers then upped the ante to $250,000, and offered a confidentiality agreement, according to the documents. The investigation stopped when Whitney paid an undisclosed amount.

Before her 2012 death, Whitney was long dogged by rumors that she was intimately involved with close childhood pal Robyn Crawford.

‘Houston told her she would never do anything to embarrass her’

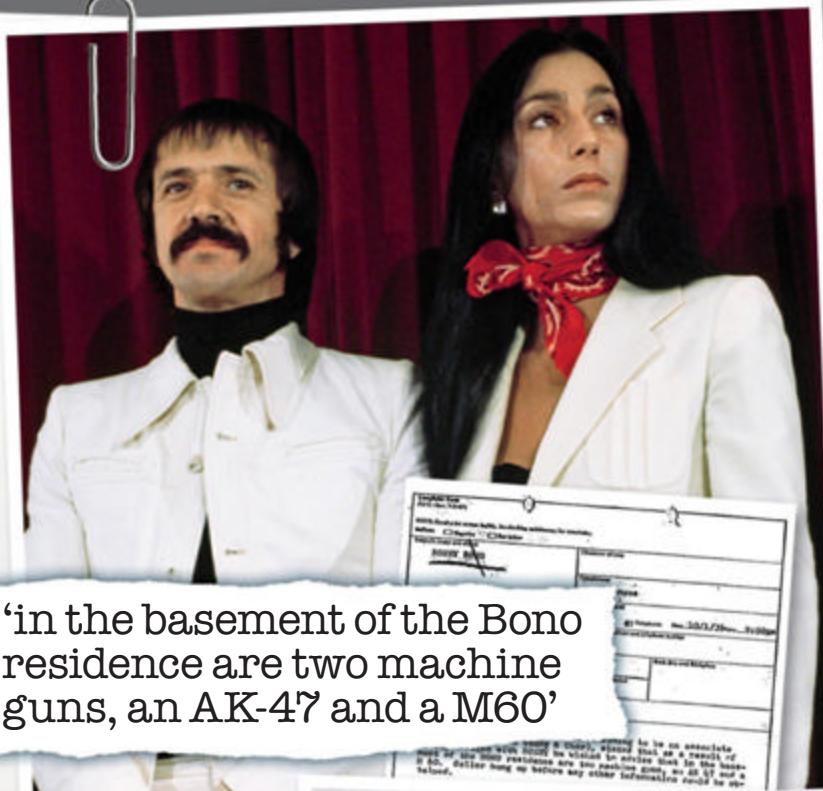

FILE #5

KENTUCKY FRIED MURDER PLOT FOR COL. SANDERS!

THE founder of Kentucky Fried Chicken was the apparent target of a half-baked assassination plot!

FBI files reveal that feds briefly guarded Harland “Colonel” Sanders in 1974 after a handwritten note warned that he was “in grave danger of being murdered.”

‘letter which Sanders believed to be threatening in nature’

‘in the basement of the Bono residence are two machine guns, an AK-47 and a M60’

FILE #6 SONNY'S SECRET WEAPONS CACHE!

FRESH off his 1975 divorce from Cher, Sonny Bono was investigated over his secret cache of high-powered weapons, according to federal documents.

The FBI and the U.S. Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms set their sights on Sonny when a former associate ratted him out after a verbal dispute.

“After having a fight with Sonny, he wished to advise that in the basement of the Bono residence are two machine guns, an AK-47 and a M60,” according to documents dated Oct. 1976.

At the time, Sonny told the feds he needed the arsenal for protection, which turned out to be prophetic. In 1994, as a maverick Southern California congressman, he was targeted by a ruthless drug-dealing Russian mob invading his district.

Sonny played a large role in the government’s war on drugs, and the gang’s attempts to bribe him were unsuccessful, according to federal documents.

After learning informants were feeding him evidence against them, the gangsters put out a contract on Sonny’s life, the documents show.

Sonny died after skiing into a tree at a Lake Tahoe resort on Jan. 5, 1998. Some people, including his mother, Jean, believed he was being chased by a hit squad.

FILE #7 LUCY'S COMMIE CONNECTION!

BELOVED star Lucille Ball was targeted for her suspected connection with the Communist Party, files show.

The flame-haired TV legend popped up on the 1953 House Un-American Activities Committee radar when it was revealed she registered to vote as a Communist in 1936 at the urging of her politically left-leaning grandfather.

The documents read: “Ball stated she has never been a member of the Communist Party.”

When the investigation led nowhere, the feds set their sights on her Cuban-born hubby, Desi Arnaz, who according to an FBI snitch was “a card-carrying member of the Cuban Communist Party.”

That ended when the feds learned Desi fled Cuba in 1933 following a coup, documents revealed.

‘a Communist Party new members’ class at the home of actress Lucille Ball’

FILE #8 CLARK GABLE'S HOOKER ADDICTION

THE King of Hollywood Clark Gable harbored a secret fondness for prostitutes, and his file revealed the habit led to a number of extortion attempts.

In the most notorious incident, the feds intercepted a letter on Oct. 1937 from a “sophisticated” female who threatened to reveal his dark past if he didn’t help jump-start her acting career, documents show.

The feds traced the blackmail letter to a hooker in Clark’s native Ohio who wanted to meet a producer. No charges were filed.

The extortion threats became so common a MGM studio secretary who read Clark’s fan mail was instructed to forward all suspicious letters to the authorities.

‘appeared in the living room not sufficiently dressed, and came home intoxicated frequently’

FILE #9

SECRET EXTORTION PLOT TO EXPOSE 'GAY' LIBERACE!

THE 400-page file on Liberace is stuffed with reports of numerous extortion plots threatening to expose the piano-playing star's homosexuality.

The flamboyant entertainer was able to maintain the front until 1982 when Scott Thorson, his 22-year-old former chauffeur and live-in boy toy, sued him for $113 million. The case was settled out of court in 1986. Liberace never admitted his sexuality.

What's more, Liberace's file detailed the extensive investigation into the 1974 theft of hundreds of his precious jewels.

The FBI also investigated the singer for making illegal bets on horse races with a shady bookmaker.

SINATRA SECRET SEX STING!

THE bulging 1,300-page file of Ol' Blue Eyes dates back to 1938 when officers snagged him in two sleazy sex stings.

The Bergen County, N.J. Sheriff's Office nabbed 22-year-old Frank Sinatra on Nov. 26, and charged him with "seduction" after he shackled up with a woman in Lodi, N.J.

That case was eventually dismissed, but he was colared again about a month later for "adultery."

The report further accused Frank of dodging the draft, and linked the "Strangers in the Night" singer to several mobsters, including powerful Mafia boss Carlo Gambino.

'TRAVOLTA & ALLEY'S CULT HID MURDER, TORTURE & BRAINWASHING SECRETS'

THE controversial Church of Scientology - which claims John Travolta and Kirstie Alley as members - has come under scrutiny for murder, torture and brainwashing. In thousands of pages of files, the FBI called the religion a "cult," and said it attracted "perverts, hypochondriacs and curiosity seekers."

A March 1981 document revealed cops reported church member William Fisk was "shot to death before members of the group in the Seattle headquarters in the Church of Scientology" on Sept. 11, 1963.

The "premeditated killing" was triggered by an enraged husband who felt his marriage was imploding because William and the church urged his wife to dump him.

The files also described church founder L. Ron Hubbard as being "hopelessly insane" and suffering from "paranoid schizophrenia."

Hubbard's wife, Sara Northrup, accused him of physical and psychological torture through "denial of sleep, beatings, strangulations and suggestions that she kill herself," the files said.

In another bizarre incident, officials in New Jersey accused the church of practicing surgery without a license and conducting "scientific torture experiments."

The FBI raided the church's offices in Washington, D.C., and Los Angeles in 1977, and arrested 11 members, including Hubbard's third wife, on espionage and conspiracy charges. Hubbard was labeled an "unindicted co-conspirator" and went into deep hiding. He died at age 74 in 1986.

A representative for the church said the claims made in the FBI documents "all have been proven to be false and evince the harassment of a new religion in its formative years."

'suffering paranoid schizophrenia'

JAMES GARNER FORCED TO PLAY REAL-LIFE DETECTIVE - OR DIE!

STAR of “Rockford Files” James Garner was targeted for death by a mentally ill man who wanted him to play a real-life detective, according to his 146-page FBI file.

“If you don’t help me I am going to kill you! That’s laying the facts down!” the deranged man wrote to the “Maverick” actor.

The nutcase wanted

James to track down an actress, whose name was redacted.

The FBI confirmed the man was in a hospital for “incarcerated mentally disordered sex offenders and the criminally insane.”

The Black Panthers also sent James a death threat after he flirted with African-American actress Chelsea Brown on TV’s “Rowan and Martin’s Laugh-In” in 1969.

ELIZABETH TAYLOR’S BLOOD BATH WITH JACKIE O & FARRAH!

AN extortionist threatened to kill Hollywood legend Elizabeth Taylor, along with Jackie Onassis and “Charlie’s Angels” star Farrah Fawcett-Majors, in 1978!

David Lamar, 34, mailed threatening letters demanding $25,000 from each of the beauties “or [the] victims would be shot to death with a 0.22 caliber,” according to the “Cleopatra” beauty’s 154-page FBI file.

He was nabbed and charged with extortion.

The “National Velvet” star also dealt with multiple extortion attempts between 1949 and 1987 in the form of death threats, creepy fan mail and other “foul threats” from stalkers.

‘four letters containing death threats to captioned victims’

FILE #14

LISA MARIE & JANET’S SHOCK AT JACKO’S PORN VIDEO!

THE King of Pop was also the king of secret child pedophile videos, according to his 333-page FBI file.

At the height of accusations he’d molested young boys, authorities in California called in the FBI’s forensic team to examine Michael’s secret stash of videotapes of children after 30 computers were seized from his Neverland Ranch.

The feds honed in on a VHS tape titled: “Michael Jackson’s Neverland Favorites, an All Boy Anthology.”

The heavily censored files do not reveal its findings.

A source told The ENQUIRER: “Michael’s ex-wife, Lisa Marie Presley, had to be shocked by the horrible disclosure. She got out of the marriage before they had any children together.

“And his family, particularly his sister Janet, were disgusted by the news.”

The docs also include a startling complaint filed by a Canadian couple who noticed the singer’s creepy behavior around a 12- or 13-year-old boy while on board a train in March 1972.

The couple complained that “Jackson was very possessive of the boy at night,” and “heard questionable noises through the wall.”

FILE #15

ROCK HUDSON 'HOMOSEXUAL' SPY

A confidential informant spied on actor Rock Hudson's homosexual activities, his FBI file revealed.

The snitch told feds in 1965 he had "personal knowledge" of the star's sexual habits because he had an "affair" with Rock, and had "received the information from individuals who had done so."

One memo in his file said:

'was a homosexual, indulged in homosexual acts'

"It is general common knowledge within the motion picture industry that Hudson is suspected of having homosexual tendencies."

Agency chiefs decided to confront the actor.

"In view of the information that Hudson has homosexual tendencies, interview will be conducted by two mature experienced Special Agents," his file read.

FILE #16

SAMMY DAVIS' LUST FOR WHITE WOMEN

SAMMY Davis Jr. had powerful Rat Pack pals, but he still couldn't tap dance his way out of trouble when it came to his relationships with white women, his FBI files reveal.

The "Candy Man" singer told federal authorities that a Chicago gangster kidnapped him and threatened to seriously hurt him if he continued dating sexy "Vertigo" actress Kim Novak, who is white.

The bureau didn't take Sammy's complaint seriously, branding it "an attempt by Davis to obtain publicity." He ended the relationship.

The files, which date from 1961 to 1976, also detail Sammy's involvement with the "Black Nationalism" movement, including a $20,000 donation to the NAACP for the Rally for Freedom in May 1963.

FILE #17

MARILYN'S ORGY, SEX TAPE AND SECRET LESBIAN AFFAIR WITH HOLLYWOOD STAR

THE "Some Like It Hot" star's bulky FBI file dates back to 1955, and reads like a dime store novel full of orgies, sex tapes, lesbian affairs, Communists and alleged murder.

FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover began to spy on Marilyn in earnest in 1960 after President John F. Kennedy and his Attorney General brother, Bobby, tried to fire him.

An angry Hoover reportedly showed them photos of both men in clandestine meetings with the sex siren, evidence sensational enough to tame the Kennedy brothers.

In one letter, dated Oct. 19, 1964, a former agent claimed: "Robert Kennedy was having a romance and sex affair over a period of time with Marilyn Monroe."

The note claimed RFK and Marilyn attended a sex party at which "a tape recording was secretly made and is in the possession of a Los Angeles private detective agency."

The FBI files further noted, "Marilyn also had an intermittent lesbian affair," and although the name was redacted, the "Seven Year Itch" sexpot once admitted to bedding actress Joan Crawford.

The feds also probed Marilyn's Communist affiliation after her 1956 marriage to playwright Arthur Miller, who associated with Socialists.

The actress died at age 36 of a suspected drug overdose on Aug. 5, 1962. However, her FBI file contains a note claiming a mystery married man who was a "household name" murdered her.

FILE #18

MCCARTNEY AND BEATLES TARGETED FOR DEATH

A MADMAN threatened to commit mass murder by tossing a hand grenade during a Beatles concert, according to the Fab Four's FBI file.

The self-proclaimed "Beatle Hater" cut out words from newspapers and magazines, and pasted them together to create the terrifying death threat in Aug. 1964.

A second threatening letter received on Sept. 18, 1964, said there were unverifiable rumors that "Muslims" had been overheard saying there might be trouble at a Kansas City concert.

The bulk of the Beatles' FBI documents involve the late John Lennon's battle with immigration to remain in the United States after he married Yoko Ono.

FILE #19

CAROLINE'S FEAR OVER JFK JR.'S KIDNAP PLOT

JOHN F. Kennedy Jr. was the target of at least three chilling kidnap plots, his 180-page FBI dossier shows.

Eight Greek citizens were arrested in 1972, and accused of planning to kidnap the 11-year-old schoolboy while he vacationed on the island of Skorpios, owned by his then-stepfather, Aristotle Onassis.

Another 1985 threat was reported to the feds after an apparently intoxicated man called police in Herndon, Penn., and claimed individuals intended on kidnapping John that evening."

Ten years later, the feds learned about a plot by NYC-based kidnapers who "had determined that Kennedy rode a bicycle in Manhattan and did not have any bodyguards."

The documents do not indicate whether any of the plots materialized.

Said a source: "John's older sister Caroline was constantly in fear that he would be taken from the family."

PRINCESS DI'S WEDDING BOMB DEATH SECRET!

THE royal wedding of Princess Diana and Prince Charles came under intense FBI scrutiny after an individual threatened to send them a gift containing a bomb, documents show.

An Annapolis, Md., woman overheard a man say he'd mailed the device before the couple's July 1981 nuptials. The female who alerted authorities said the man called the explosive a "wedding present."

Agents quickly tracked down the alleged suspect at his home.

The investigation was dropped after the man swore he'd spoken "sarcastically."

CLOONEY IN HACK ATTACK HELL!

HOLLYWOOD has kept the FBI busy - with agents still investigating the cyber attack on Sony Pictures! Hundreds of A-listers were shaking in their shoes after hackers took over Sony's computer systems and published private emails.

They included one in which producer Scott Rudin dismissed Angelina Jolie as a "minimally talented spoiled brat!"

Other emails showed George Clooney sweating over the lack of box office success for his WW2 flick

"The Monuments Men."

"Let's just make it a hit," he whined to Sony chief Amy Pascal.

A source said: "George and his wife, Amal, were furious over the leaks because they try to show a polished life to the public and this showed his true colors."

Social security numbers were made public - and it was revealed that Tom Hanks often uses the aliases of "Harry Laud-er" and "Johnny Madrid."

The FBI is also probing an attack that led to the release of nude photos of Jennifer Aniston. NE

Winona's driving Jen crazy!

JENNIFER Aniston is seeing red over fiancé Justin Theroux’s “obsession” with an old rival – Winona Ryder!

“Justin is out to revive Winona’s career, and it’s tapped into all of Jen’s insecurities,” a pal exclusively told The National ENQUIRER.

“She’s so paranoid about Justin straying that she has an assistant keeping tabs on his whereabouts at all times!”

Justin, 43, has been filming “Zoolander 2” with pal Ben Stiller in Rome, and they’ve been trying to woo Winona back to reprise her cameo from the original fashion spoof.

“They’re banking on Winona making her own big comeback,” added The ENQUIRER’s insider.

But there’s one big problem with the co-stars’ plan.

“Jen is extremely unhappy about this,” said the source.

Jennifer, 46, and Winona, 43, have an ugly history. The “Beetlejuice” actress made a cameo on “Friends” in 2001, and rubbed everyone the wrong way with her diva attitude – and Jen

Foods you need to avoid for better sleep

EVERYBODY needs their zzz's, but snacking can hack up a good nap. "People struggling with weight suffer from abnormal insulin secretion - particularly after sweets," said Dr. Stuart Fischer. Candy is loaded with sugar and increases your energy level. Soda is a bad choice at any time of day with limited nutritional value and big amounts of sugar and caffeine. Coffee sounds obvious, but even decaf can keep you awake - especially if you add sugar to sweeten it up! Ice cream is packed with fat that will settle in your stomach while you sleep. So cut out the snacks and hit the sack!

FEED YOUR BRAIN

OLDER adults who prefer red meats and sweets have a greater risk of mental decline than those who have a steady and healthy diet. A recent study showed that among nearly 28,000 older adults, the 20 percent eating healthy diets were less likely to suffer from mental decline. Why would healthy food choices help preserve your memory as you age? Scientists believe the anti-inflammatory nutrients in foods like fruits, vegetables and fish help preserve brain health.

KEEP CALM AND LIVE LONG!

LOSING your cool might cause you to have a heart attack. A recent study at New York's Lenox Hill Hospital found that people who lost their composure increase their risk of cardiac arrest by more than eight times! "Your blood pressure increases, your heart rate rises and it all increases the oxygen demand on the heart," revealed Dr. Tara Narula, a Lenox Hill cardiologist. The doctor's advice? "Regular saunas decrease the risk of cardiac death by 63 percent!" she said.

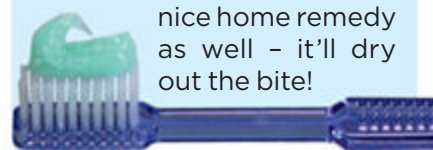

HOUSEWORK LEADS TO HAPPINESS!

NEW research shows doing housework can keep older adults mentally and physically fit. The findings are based on 337 Ohio residents from 65 to 94 years old who performed domestic duties and improved their physical and mental well-being! "The house cleaning kept them upright and moving," said researcher Kathy D. Wright in the Geriatric Nursing journal. "Housework burns calories and stabilizes blood sugar, reducing fatigue!" added Dr. Stuart Fischer, who stresses that seniors - especially those with chronic illnesses or disabilities - benefit from productive physical activities.

BEAT SUMMER BUG BITES

DON'T let mosquitoes take a bite out of summer fun! If you love the outdoors, mosquitoes may be unavoidable, but there are tips to treat mini-massacres. Cover up as much as you can! They love strong scents, so avoid perfume and cologne, and be wary of aromatic lotions. Don't scratch the itch - it will irritate it more. Use OTC antihistamine creams and alcohol to minimize the itches. Vinegar is also a good salvation! Toothpaste is a nice home remedy as well - it'll dry out the bite!

WITH DR. JEFF LACROIX

Owning a pet can be a rewarding but often puzzling experience. ENQUIRER columnist, top veterinarian Dr. Jeff LaCroix, answers questions about your four-legged friends.

YOUR CAT'S GOLDEN YEARS

We have an older, arthritic cat. She doesn't get around as good as she used to. We give her a joint supplement with glucosamine and chondroitin plus fish oil. Do you think they help at all?

Supplements for cats do some good, but not all are created equal. The products are classified as nutritional food supplements. As such, they are not regulated by the FDA or by feed control regulations.

Under the current system, supplements neither have to be approved nor do they have to show evidence of safety or effectiveness to the FDA – unless they contain a new ingredient. Worst of all, often the product does not even contain the stated amount of active ingredients.

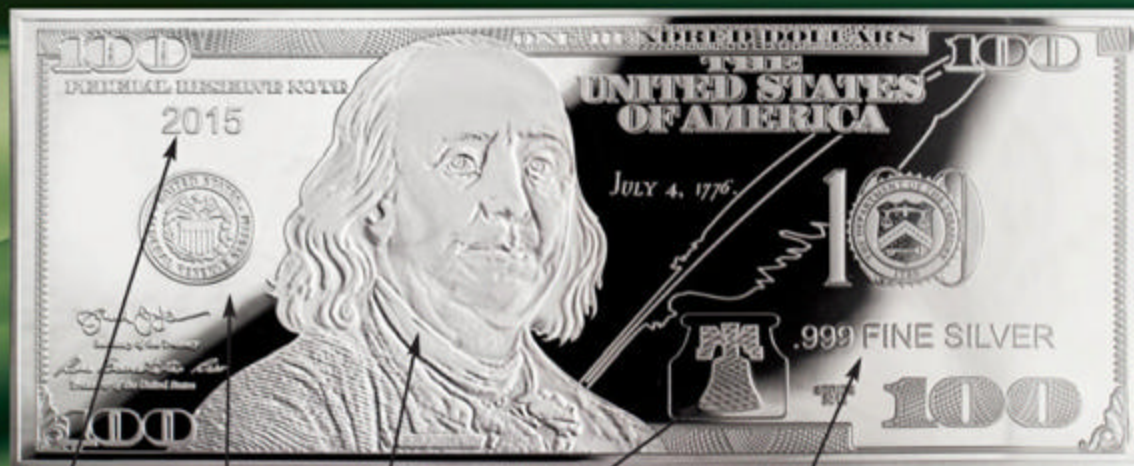

The National Animal Supplement Council [NASC] is an attempt by the industry to police itself. A quality seal from NASC is some assurance that the product is what it says it is.

The old adage, "You get what you pay for," probably applies here. NE

HOW TO PLAY

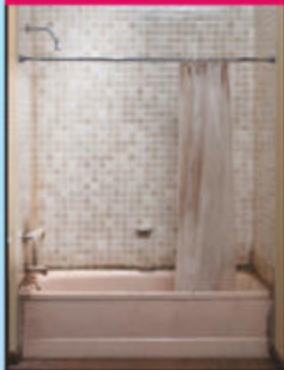

You must fill in every empty square in the Sudoku grid. There's no right way of going about this, but there is only ever one solution. The big grid is split into nine mini-grids. There are nine rows running left to right and nine columns running down. In every row, you must have each of the numbers 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8 and 9. These can be in any order. The same applies to columns and mini-grids: place every number 1 through 9 in each column and in each mini-grid.

Cats Leave Paw Prints On Our Hearts

Inspired by the artistry of

BLAKE JENSEN

ASPCA

Cats are gifts from Heaven above!

Loved for their playful spirit, warm cuddles and tender devotion, a cat is more than just a pet — it's part of our family. Now, in an exclusive Hamilton figurine debut, artist Blake Jensen cradles our furry friends in an angel's wings ... to protect them here on Earth ... and to keep them in our hearts even after they've gone.

Handcrafted with a heavenly sparkle.

Working from Blake's original sketches, artisans meticulously handcraft and paint "Cats Leave Paw Prints On Our Hearts." And while holding this sweetly slumbering kitty in a gentle heart shape, the glittery, etched "feather" angel wings sparkle as bright as your love for your pet!

Money-back guarantee!

Each limited edition is hand-numbered and includes a Certificate of Authenticity. With your purchase, Hamilton proudly supports the ASPCA's mission to save animals' lives. Satisfaction is guaranteed or your money back. Celebrate your "four-legged blessing" and reply now!

COME TO BIG, OLD HAIRY DADDY!

Orangutan who loves to ape being a caregiver

HE COULD be a candidate for Father of the Year, but he has an unfair advantage – his loving arms are about 5 feet long!

Now four tiger cubs at Myrtle Beach Safari are enjoying getting plenty of cuddles, thanks to an orangutan who's adopted them!

The gentle giant, named Surya, decided to try out the adage, "Monkey see, monkey do," after watching trainers at the Myrtle Beach, S.C., wildlife preserve take care of the tiny tigers.

The 11-year-old orangutan surprised his keepers by wanting to keep up with the growing tigers!

"Surya started mimicking the human caregiving behaviors, and became very connected to the mothering process," said senior trainer Robert Johnson.

Surya is always on standby to take over nursing duties, and patiently feeds the curious cubs from a bottle.

Aside from all the cuddling, the primate provides plenty of playtime.

But this isn't the first time that the amiable

Aww! Proud papa Surya likes to cuddle with hound Roscoe and bottle-feed the tiger cubs ape has shown his love for all kinds of animals. Surya is a local hero for hanging around with his buddy, Roscoe the Bluetooth Hound – and has also made some pals out of penguins after feeding them fish by hand.

That might also explain why Surya is one of only two apes to ever have been documented swimming!

Surya's new tiger babies are only about two months old. These cubs will eventually grow more savage and have to be separated from their caregiver.

Don't worry about Surya, though. He has other animal friends, and lives with three fellow orangutans, plus 10 more apes – who must all be proud that their primate pal swung to the top of this week's Odd List! NE
